Description: With the publication of her landmark bestseller Paris 1919, Margaret MacMillan was praised as “a superb writer who can bring history to life” (The Philadelphia Inquirer). Now she brings her extraordinary gifts to one of the most important subjects today—the relationship between the United States and China—and one of the most significant moments in modern...

Review: Along with the fall of the Berlin Wall, Nixons trip to China was one of the signature moments of Cold War thaw. While MacMillan is an academic historian, she writes like a popular one. She uses vivid language, focuses on the details that illuminates rather than obscures but she doesnt cheat on the context that give that Week its historical significance....
